This project has been granted to the Centre for Human Sciences, Rishihood University, by the IKS Division of AICTE, Ministry of Education, Government of India, under IKS Internships Program 2023-24 (भारतीयज्ञानसंवाहनकार्यक्रम: -3) The project aligns with the mission of the Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) division, aiming to preserve, promote, and revitalize India's rich indigenous knowledge systems and traditions. By researching and documenting the references to robotics in ancient India, we actively support the preservation and promotion of indigenous knowledge systems. This project also directly advances the mission of the IKS division to implement the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 by integrating traditional knowledge systems into the modern educational framework, fostering research and innovation, and promoting interdisciplinary approaches.

Expert Talk by Mahesh Chandra Sharma ji on Ekatma Manav Darsan

Dr. Mahesh Chandra Sharma, Chairman of Research and Development at the Foundation for Integral Humanism, Ekatma Bhawan, New Delhi delivered a talk titled "Ekatma Manav Darsan" on June 19, 2023 at the Ashok Goel Library. The talk was organized by the Centre for Human Sciences. Dr. Sharma, a renowned scholar and writer, has dedicated his efforts to exploring the various aspects of integral humanism, a philosophy propagated by the late Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya. Dr. Sharma expounded upon the importance of the individual in society.. The goal of integral humanism, according to Dr. Sharma, is to foster a harmonious coexistence of individuals and to realize their fullest potential in all dimensions of life. A key aspect of his discourse was the role of the Vedas in integral humanism. The Vedas, he emphasized, hold profound teachings on ethics, morality, and the interconnectedness of all beings. Dr. Sharma highlighted the significance of the journey from individuality to collectivity, and emphasized the importance of recognizing and honoring the unique talents and contributions of individuals within a collective framework.

Marketing and Admission Efforts

In June, the Rishihood team engaged in numerous outreach events and activities to promote Rishihood's mission. The Admissions and Marketing team successfully interacted with a total of 1080 students, spread across 13 offline events, reaching 800 students, and 5 online events, where 280 students participated. The offline events included career fairs, school sessions, and career guidance sessions held in cities like Udaipur and Bhubaneswar.
